

How CaringMatters Can Support You and Your Students...

Grief Information, Support & Referral Service

Who?

- For you professionally and your school colleagues
- For your school families to contact Gilly Cannon directly
- For you personally

What?

- Supportive listening and coaching
- Links to grief-related tip sheets, books, websites, etc.
- Therapist referral list for grief-related issues
- Presentations and webinars about supporting grieving children to parents and staff
- Guidance for supporting grieving children with special needs

Contact Gilly Cannon, Senior Director of Children's Bereavement Services at gillyc@caringmatters.org or 301-990-8904.

For information, support and referral in Spanish, contact Mabilia Rastello, mabiliar@caringmatters.org or 717-800-1631.

Resources for Schools: www.caringmatters.org/resourcesforschools
Resources for Families: www.caringmatters.org/resourcesforfamilies

CaringMatters, a nonprofit organization based in Gaithersburg, MD, offers specialized social and emotional support programs, free of charge, for adults, children and families in Montgomery County facing serious illness, caregiving challenges, end-of-life, loss and grief. For more information, visit CaringMatters.org.